

JOIN THE EXCLUSIVE MACRO TRADING COMMUNITY WITH FACTOR'S OWN JONATHON KING

Dear Traders,

In February 2023, we launched the PeterLBrandt NFT via @ChartWizardsNFT as both a Discord community and a comprehensive research service. Since then, we have witnessed remarkable growth and engagement, thanks to the outstanding contributions of our very own Jonathon King (JK) (@jonbking – see bio below). While the full NFT service will not be reopening, we believe the quality of Jonathon's monthly research report is too valuable to remain limited to NFT holders alone.

July 25th we announce the launch of the ChartWizardsNFT™ monthly macro letter as a standalone service, available to everyone.

Why Subscribe to Jonathon King's Research Service?

Endorsed enthusiastically by Peter Brandt: Peter Brandt, a legendary trader known for his expertise in classical charting principles and his successful trading career, has given his full endorsement to Jonathon King's research service. Peter's insights and methods have shaped the trading world for decades, and his support underscores the exceptional quality of Jonathon's work. Jonathon is an invaluable team member, with my complete confidence as an analyst, trader, and trusted friend.

Comprehensive Market Coverage: Jonathon's monthly research letter delves into a range of markets including crypto, altcoins, global macro trends, and more. His analysis is rooted in over a decade of trading futures and options, making his insights invaluable for both novice and experienced traders.

Risk Management and Transparency: Jonathon emphasizes transparency and accountability, offering in-depth charting and risk management strategies to improve your trading performance. His reports are not just about market predictions; they are a resource to understand the underlying mechanics of market movements and to manage risks effectively.
